Alone and confused
your heart is bruised from sin

Joy is coming from love gone wrong and your trying to start again

And know that you've been hurt and you don't know who to trust
I won't pretend to understand your pain

But I can see repentance in your eyes and I know its not too late I hear Him calling your name

White as Snow
He has made you
White as Snow
The moment the you confessed
His heart forgave (Chorus)

You might think you have ruined all the plans He had for you but its for that very reason Jesus saves

White as snow
He has made you
White as snow
You're pure and innocent
Like a dove

Know you have done nothing to deserve His pardoning you've been purified by Jesus Christ

White as Snow
White as Snow

The guilt and the shame
Is keeping you chained
Not wanting, to let you go

It's not how you dreamed It's not how you planned
And you can't see
That there's still hope

Recieve His healing for your bruises Recieve His riches for your rags
You cannot imagine
All the plans He has for you
So take His hand and don't look back

Chorus

You might think you've ruined
all the plans He had for you

White as snow
He has made you
White as snow
Like a dove

And know you have done nothing to deserve His pardoning
you've been purified by Jesus Christ

White as Snow
White as Snow
You're White as Snow
