And we were just drifting
Just drifting...

She said sing me a story one perhaps that'll make me laugh and paint me a world with words but hold my hand and guide me through As intrigue unfolds my blinders come off and it's no wonder that I wonder the true meaning of love love love
Baby we're worlds away and skies above
Just drifting...
Just drifting down...

There's no destination in our sights no
say please tell me
baby please tell me that this story has no end
this story has no end

Says "Where to now is there more to see?"
Hush now darling I've got pages to go Let's dine with kings and queens and join the sharks for a swim
Climb the highest mountain just to discover
The sun is the warmest when we're miles above
Just drifting now...
Just drifting now...
There's no destination in our sights no
says please tell me
baby please tell me that this story has no end

I kiss you softly, with real lips and quiet longing Bringing you back to the room we lay Princess beautiful you take me worlds away
If you only knew where I've been through, you.
If you only knew where I've been through, you.
and we were just drifting...
just drifting now...
there's no destinations in our sights no says please tell me, baby please tell me that this story has no end

story has no end

Just drifting...

Just drifting love...

Just drifting...

there's no destination in our sights

Just drifting...
