Oh my there she goes
Making her way towards me
And she flashes her smile,
My way
Oh well now Im done.
This girls way, way,
Way too beautiful for words.

So Ill just smile back
And hope she stays
With me.

So Ill be, Your man
If you let me.
Yeah if you choose me.
And Ill hold your hand.
And show you how
The queen of all should live.

She spills some words out past her lips
And now Im in so deep.
Her words melt inside my ear like honey in air.
And no I wont move too fast
Like I know she thinks I will.

So Ill just smile back
And hope that she stays
With me.

So Ill be, Your man
If you let me
Yeah if you choose me
And Ill hold your hand
And show you how
The queen of all should live.
