"Surface"

She fell into my space like a paper plane.
Since her landing,
No, I haven't been quite the same.
See it's easy to forget,
What you really want,
When you're always seeking.
So when you find that diamond in that sea...

All you gotta do is surface.
All you gotta do is surface.

Some days have made some nights
Something to forget.
I know that I can be a fool sometimes...(All the time)
But baby won't you come and keep
Me warm until I fall asleep?
Please won't you help me...

Surface.
All I wanna do is surface.

And when sadness brings her down.
I'll be the first to dive right in.

I'm gonna help her surface
Gonna be the one,
Put hope back into her lungs
I'm gonna help her surface.
I'm gonna help her surface
