Bought her flowers bout' an hour ago
I spent my lunch at work to write her a note and now I'm just playing the waiting game

Went to the store to buy a new perfume the kind that'd stop him when he entered the room
and now I'm just playing the waiting game

Took my time to do my hair real nice I was so nervous I even brushed twice
and now I'm just playing the waiting game

Cooked all day to make his favorite dish I did my hair just the way that he wished
and now I'm just playing the waiting game

We'll wait for the time to come but inbetween
we're making sure everything oh so right alright alright, everything's oh so right

I marked down 7, well I marked down 6 I thought you were coming over... Oh well listen to this I've been waiting all day you know I have been too We'll let's get together then and put this game to rest

We'll wait for the time to come but inbetween
we're makin sure everything's oh so right
alright, alright everything's oh so right

We'll play the waiting game, play the play the waiting game we played the waiting game played the played the waiting game.
