

T.n.t. "Hey Love"

Hey love, didn't mean to wake you
I can't sleep anymore
I feel stranded in the ocean
And I keep looking for the shore

We don't need words to say it
Everyone knows this thing is real
But I've been staring at your potograph

Hey love, could be tomorrow
I feel the wind begin to blow
From the forest to the city
We're like a fairy tale you know

We don't need words to say it
I know you're trying to make it home
And I'm not going anywhere

We don't need words to say it
I know the time is coming
It's almost here so until then
I'll just be staring at your photograph

Hey love could be tomorrow
I feel the wind begin to blow
