"Invisible Noise"

Talking and talking in circles and nothing is said
Louder and prouder you're crushed
In the weight of your head

On top of your pedestal
Nothing is logical yeah
It's so confusing, amusing me out of my mind

it's all just invisible noise
Going nowhere that I can follow
If only you'd get to the point might make it easier to swallow

Hiding, denying you're running and getting nowhere
The answers you're looking for standing in front of your stare

Keep your eyes on the road
Take your mind of the load yeah
It's so convincing I'm sensing you almost believe it

It's all just invisible noise
Going nowhere that I can follow
If only you'd get to the point
might make it easier to swallow

Keep you eyes on the road
Take your mind of the load yeah
It's so convincing I'm sensing you almost believe it

It's all just invisible noise
Going nowhere that I can follow
If only you'd get to the point
might make it easier to swallow
