i can believe, i can believe

put my finger in brooke shields' mouth i like the way that her lips pop out she's my girl without a doubt the one for me
even though she's six foot three

anything i want to believe i can believe anything i want today well that's my right and that's my way anything, anytime all i have to do is believe

keep it up
rub a dub dub
in a copper tub
all night backrubs
i think i'm in love
keep it up

all night backrubs
i think i'm michael jackson as a matter of fact, i wear elevator stacks and dance like michael jackson never leave the room, just run away to the blue lagoon
