Everytime is time to go in many ways every dream is like a long road with little time I will fly within your sky

Everytime is time to go Everywhile is for us to hold, along the way your destruction is my life With little time, I will fly between your smile cause everytime is time to go, and everywhile is for us to hold
in many ways every dream is like a long road it's my desire to protect your lips with mine, with mine. . . .
Don't be sad and lonely There's your whole life waiting out your door Don't be sad!

Along the way to love with everything behind for many hours we will be fugitives of time,
cause everytime is time to go,
and everywhile is for us to hold
everytime is time to go,
and everywhile is for us to hold,
Everytime.....
