driving to the crime of the time I manufacture my mind
till we stop
till the real man comes on top and now you'll really be dropped

Fading in the lane with the brain that can never be tamed
I got the car
Got the 21st century car well now I know who you are

you're so automatic
the way you bleed
you're so automatic
the things you need
and you still are standing in the field what a deal will you get out and kneel where you are

where the blood doesn't get on my car it's such a beautiful car dropping of the shot with the pop makes me wonder and stop what you got what you really got coming along and now you really are gone

the way you bleed
the things you need
the way you see
you're so automatic
you're just like me
you're so automatic
