Hey

There's rain on my door step, I got music in my mind
Time on my hands to sit and wonder why
In this world of dark angels and blood ridden reapers With money and the power of life, they live as our keepers

I wanna be alone today 'cause that's where I feel safe Alone in the rain, the sadness gonna numb the pain everyday, everyday

They give you golden promise, the knowledge of the ages
Speaking in tongues, golden wings, rosy faces
I saw the wart on TV today, a speech for all, but nothing to say
And I wonder, why, I ask myself, why, I believe Well, it looks like I've been deceived

I wanna be alone today, yeah, that's where I feel safe
Alone in the rain, the sadness gonna numb the pain everyday
Do you know your name, all alone in the rain
Now we're all the same, I'm gone today

They give you golden promise, the knowledge of the ages
Speaking in tongues, golden wings, rosy faces
Golden promise, the knowledge of the ages
Speaking in tongues, golden wings, rosy faces

Golden promise, the knowledge of the ages
Speaking in tongues, golden wings, rosy faces
Golden promise, the knowledge of the ages
Speaking in tongues, golden wings, rosy faces

Golden promise, the knowledge of the ages
Golden promise, the knowledge of the ages

I don't know [Incomprehensible]
