Last night I lay awake
My eyes were dry with the pain
Sometimes I wish that I would just die
Save me from seeing you again

I knew you used me but I didn't care
I was happy just being together
Sometimes I wonder if I should be with you
All you ever do is ignore me

You never talk when your friends are around
Too bitchin' to see you with me
Won't call, won't waste your time
Too busy to send your love to me

That time I held you so tight in my arms
I was just wishing the night wasn't ending
That's when you told me you couldn't see me
I thought our love was just beginning

Forever is just that with you it ends
Though you're in mind as I lay here
Can't stand it no longer I've gotta give in
I call you again and again and again

Forever is just that with you it ends
Though you're in mind as I lay here
Can't stand it no longer I've gotta give in
I call you again and again and again
