What did I do
To be treated this way
Watching my tears floating by
Searching for the drain

Is there some sunshine for me
To dry up these waters rising past my knees

I'm gonna need
A hand, pull me up
A dollar, if that's enough
Your voice, to help me through
Your time, that'll do
All I ask of this
Is for you to notice

How do you start
A new life
When the one you loved
Has just said good bye

Tears at my heart
Tears on Tv
They get a glimpse of what I can
Only see

I'm gonna needâ€¦

Funny thing about hope
Hard to find
Not even the richest of us
Can afford to buy
If you don't believe it can happen to you
Look me in the eye and tell me

How do you start a new life
How do you start a new life
How do you start a new life
