Now...

If you don't know what your looking for,
How you ever gonna find it?
I guess that you could try every door,
Without the key, you might as well quit,

Aimlessnessâ€¦

The streets are no place for anyone,
I don't care how bad your life was,
You've got the here and now to do what you know,
not what everybody else does.

You say. "I'm tired, I don't feel like it",
Well honey I don't feel like it too.
But the choices you refuse to made,
will be made for you
Talkin' 'bout ... Aim less ness (X3),

What you gonna do when nobody else does it for you.

If you don't know what your looking for,
How you ever gonna find it?
