I have been waiting here,
For you to fetch the getaway car,
You took the money and the jewels,
I'm thinking I'm no prize at all,

Cause I've been replaced,
We planned this months long ago,
You told me of the places we would go,
I'd wear the jewels and your pockets full of cash cash cash cash,

I guess I've been replaced,

Something tells me they'll put me away,
Behind the bars this day will replay,
And replay in my head, my own TV,
You are the show and you are free!
