I don't want you to love me
If that's not your fate
Would you kindly step aside if that's the case

Don't want another drink I've had enough
The way to my heart does not involve getting me drunk

I'm after a genuine one, so don't kiss my ass to get my pants undone
I keep my heart clean, don't you dirty the dishes just to leave them in the sink I keep my heart clean, don't use words like love when you don't know what they mean

Pick-up lines, I've heard plenty.
You don't give a dog a bone and not expect him to spend the night at your feet This shirt of mine, Is staying on,
If strippin's what your wishing you got me all wrongâ€¦

Don't want to be rude, don't wanna sound curt No chance in hell, I'm gonna sell, myselfâ€¦for less than what I am worth
