Sit down on my leg
Let me tell you little story about where I've been Through bridges and tracks
In and out of towns
You wanna know some more?
You better sit down

Grew up traveling state to state
Grew up on many of an air force base
Drive on in, drive on out,
Enough time to feed my soul
Enough time to feed my mouth
Chorus:

Home aint where I was born
Nothing left there to call home
I'm in Long Beach tonight
I just stopped in
So don't ask me where I'm from
Ask me where I'm going (x 4)

Daddy raised me grandpa grandma too
Three generations underneath one roof
Sister and I lived on the fly, daddy got his orders
Time to say goodbye
You keep in touch with those who are worth your time

Home aint where I was born
Nothing left there to call home
I'm in Long Beach tonight
I just stopped in
So don't ask me where I'm from
Ask me where I'm going (x 4)

Opportunity may knock on my door well, your damn sure my ship ain't sitting by the shore there's a big bright world out there for me to not turn my eyes to the see wherever I am that's where I'll be from.
