Bobby was taught long ago, to be the one who comes to a rescue, life didn't turn out the way his folks planned, he's waiting to be rescued,

And it's off to the races,
what will it be,
for his love life to run his course?
where fairy tales end and happy endings begin,
He says, "I'm waiting for my man on white horse."

Gina's a pretty smart girl, hailing from the beaches of Destin, She works as hard as her man in Navarre, just to get ignored by him,

And She is off to the races,
what will it be,
when she realizes that she is worth more?
where fairy tales end and happy endings begin,
she says, "I'm waiting for my man on white horse."

Kiley's a good friend of mine, we go out to the bars in PA, when she's had too much to drive, our friend Mark gives her a ride, and wave from the cha cha's window, And their off to her place, what will it be,
when he hits on her on her front porch?
She says, "Your a nice guy but my girlfriend is inside, Don't think, I'm waiting for my man on white horse."

And it's off to the races, what will it be for love to run to its source?
where fairy tales end and happy endings begin
He says, "I'm waiting for my man on white horse."
She says, "I'm waiting for my man on white horse."
Don't think, "I'm waiting for my man on white horse."
