I got the muddy bottom blues,
I'm just trying to get through.
I got the muddy bottom blues,
I'm just trying to get through.
I know the sun is goin' down and I'm stuck on muddy ground,
stuck on muddy ground,
I'm stuck on muddy ground.
It's gonna be a long night
if I never break free.
It's gonna be a long night
if I never break free.
For how could I sleep
with that gator eye on me, gator eye on me,
that gator eye on me.
It's too soft to walk
and too hard to swim.
It's too soft to walk
and too hard to swim.
And you can scream in horror:
nobody hears a thing,
nobody hears a thing,
nobody hears a thing.
And sun is going down
and I'm stuck on muddy ground Yes the sun is going down and I'm stuck on muddy ground I'm just tryin' to get through
in muddy bottom blues,
in muddy bottom blues,
in these muddy bottom blues.
