Your tears came through the phone,
I couldn't let you go.
And leave you,
On your own.
I hate to hear you cry,
Stirs up my heart inside.
It's hard for,
You I know
But darlin',
I don't mind,
Taking on your world...

CHORUS

Sometimes you find it throws,
More than you can hold,
On your own.
And when your heart is choked,
And you're fallen broke,
Don't lose hope.
Cause you'll find that love,
Will fill,
The hole(s)...

Your voice was shaking hard,
Breaking your words apart,
I wanted you,
In my arms.
The pain held you so strong,
Babe you've done nothing wrong.
I know for you,
It was so hard
But darlin',
I don't mind,
Taking on your world...

Repeat Chorus

BRIDGE

It's when you're lost,
With a drunken compass.
If you give it time,

You'll find a familiar scene.
When it all seems wrong,
The world's just too strong.
If you feel yourself falling,
I'm pretty good at catching.
Cause I don't mind,
No I don't mind.
Taking on,
Carrying a piece of,
A part of your world...

Repeat CHORUS

End:
Oh darlin' darlin' darlin'
Oh darlin' darlin' darlin'
Alright alright
Will fill...

Just like, something like that...
