"Lost And Jaded"

We see what we know.
We look back at the past and can't let go.
Grind up with fate and chained down to our formulaic ways.
Rip off my guard, shed the layers of a moist and naked heart.
Push in so deep.

Oh no, where we gonna go now?
We've been lost and jaded,
where we gonna go?

Your lips, that hole.
Your whole life becomes the flesh you just let go.
Dead sin swims down, down the river where no bright flowers grow.
Oh, I know!

Oh no, where we gonna go now?
We've been lost and jaded.
Where we gonna go? {4x}
