Pause for a second, look at what you're getting.
Don't let them, it's just another story to go. {2x}

You've been shelving pride right next to your own life
On the dresser lies the truth that you need to disguise

Oh
The angel sings, Oh the angel cries
Oh
The angel sings, Oh the angel cries

Use your efforts for what will please them, but distance your cure
Wear yourself thin as bones without the return of yourself you've thrown away

Oh
The angel sings, Oh the angel cries
Oh
The angel sings, Oh the angel cries

The angel sings, the angel cries

Just throw your life away {3x}
Just throw your life,
Just throw your life away

Oh
The Angel Sings, oh the angel cries
Oh
The Angel Sings

Come on now sugar
