Late at night when I lie in bed
And think of all the things we said
And think of all the times we shared
And think of how you never cared at all

I can't be everything you want me to
I was never good enough for you
You don't know what you had when you had me
Wait and someday you will see

Too many days passed me by Too many times I've wondered why
Too many steaks shoved in the foundation to change our structure
Too many steaks shoved in my heart

I can't be everything you want me to
I was never good enough for you
You don't know what you had when you had me
Wait and someday you will see

I can't be everything you want me to
I was never good enough for you
You don't know what you had when you had me
Wait and someday you will see
