I got a question
Say there was this guy
Who always thought about you
Who always talked about you
What would you tell him?
Who you get to know him?
If you already knew him
What would you say?

(Chorus)
But he's too scared to Come and tell you how he feels
So he sent me
well you see

I got a friend
Really it's a friends friend
Says he thinks your gorgeous
Says he thinks your beautiful
I got a friend
I think you might have met him
I know that he has met you
He only thinks about you

(Chorus)

This friend
He's liked you for a long time
Do you want to met him
(Pause)
You just did
You just did
You just did
You just did
