

Erja Lyytinen

"Everything's Fine"

Visit "Everything's Fine" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm moving, moving all the time
Changin' the places, running around
All together but ain't satisfied
I'm captured in a shell without a life
Pretending everything's fine

I'm walking, among the crowd
Of faceless hypocrites talking meaningless stuff
Learn to play game rough
And bend down when I must
Pretending everything's fine

Gotta leave this institution, that is holding me back
Gotta find the solution, to get myself on track
Gotta leave this institution, that is holding me back
Lust for life gives a reason for revelation

Gotta leave this institution, that is holding me back
Gotta find the solution, to get myself on track
Gotta leave this institution, that is holding me back
Lust for life gives a reason for revelation

I'm running, showing my claws
To important people who try to hide their flaws
Just a flock of sheep in their small paddock
If the fence's too high blame the bad luck
Learn to act like the rest of us
Bending down when you must
Pretending everything's fine
Pretending everything's fine
Pretending everything's fine

Visit Erja Lyytinen page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.