Santa works all day in his workshop
Making lots of games and toys
Then one day, he hops in his sleigh?

And brings them to the girls and boys?
Santa's just as nice as he can be?
There's just one little thing that worries me?

If it doesn't snow on Christmas?
How is Santa gonna to use his sleigh??
In case of rain, will there be a train?
That will speed him on his way??

If it doesn't snow on Christmas?
How will Santa get around to us??
If he breaks down on his way to town?
Then we'll let him use our bus

I sent him a nice long letter?
And I hope it's not in vain?
I'd really feel much better?
If I knew he could fly a plane?

People say he has eight reindeer?
For the sleigh, he's driving here?
But how'll he go
If it doesn't snow on Christmas this year

If it doesn't snow on Christmas?
How is Santa gonna to use his sleigh??
In case of rain, will there be a train?
That will speed him on his way??

If it doesn't snow on Christmas?
How will Santa get around to us??
If he breaks down on his way to town?
Then we'll let him use our bus

Then we'll let him use our bus, yeah
