"Absent Illusion"

Visit "Absent Illusion" on MotoLyrics.com

Climbing on the stairs of life
Through different phases I've been Recollections from the silent years
To learn the facts of life and fool the perils of mind
Then the voice of madness would lead me down

Loosing my will
Loosing my hope
Thoughts of confusion

Loosing my will
Loosing my hope
Absent illusion
So the evil came at last Forever autumn dark and cold
A screaming silence haunts me
Frightened by reality and the way humanity became Memories will render you astray
