And you turn your head and look right past me as you do
It seems impossible to me to ignore melody as you do, as you do
As you walk on past you seem to hesitate, but you don't respond to my smile
And you cut my heart in ribbons round me as you do.
Oh, I am enamoured of you Oh, my condition is chronic
And will you forget my name tomorrow as you do You have no idea how much you cause me sorrow as you do, as you do If this moment passes you'll regret it always in the dark of your mind
And you turn your head and look right past me as you do.
