Discontent you wear so well
It's a part that you hide
And leave buried inside
Seems the things that
Used to mean
The world to me
Don't add up to a hill of beans

Let yourself free flow
Help me let it go
Let yourself free

Drowned feeling inside
That I couldn't hide
But I didn't forget to smile
Memories good and bad
Mark my life like a mile post sign

Let yourself free flow
Help me let it go
Let yourself free

Discontent you wear so well
You could hardly ever tell
You leave buried inside
Seems the things that
Used to mean
The world to me
Don't add up to a hill of beans
