In the fast lane on the fast stuff
Don't stop till you get enough
Restless, can't sit still Im aimless can't find a thing of consequence.
And in spite of all the danger Im still here
And in spite of all the danger Im still Seamless are the days
They're wasted
Without a thought they run together
And in spite of all the danger
Im still here
And in spite of all the danger
Im still
There are days that I have held
And there are days that I have lost
Who counts the cost, who counts the cost, who counts
the cost
And in spite of all the danger Im still here
