"Goddess Of Chaos"

An ageing craft of unknown origin
Ancient beacon is calling them warning them of...
In space no one hears your scream

A forelorn world don't know what they're after Company secrets betraying them, selling them all
In space no one hears your scream

Strange things happen and strange she may seem the Goddess of chaos and merciless dreams
It hits his face a creature of madness

Purestrain warrior inside him, it's taken aboard Inside him grows unknown breed
Ash alone knows the truth
Kane arises, he stands anew first of seven to die

This foreign life aggressive and deadly
Committed killer, stalking them
Hunting them down
The time is set for final destruction
Officer Ripley is launched into nothing and stars
