And Im doing my best to ignore
The darkness that youve been waiting for Doing my best to restrain,
And Im trying so hard to explain
The spaces between the words you say
Doing my best to ignore
So what you got that's worth waiting for Promise me anything I'll want more
After all this is nothing new,
Nothing new
What you got that's worth leaving for
I gave you everything you want more
After all this is nothing new
No it's nothing new Nothing new.
And Im doing my best to restrain
The clouds that have gathered over you
And the clouds they are bringing rain,
And Im trying so hard to explain
The twists that your logic turns me to
Doing my best to ignore
