I know you think you're funny dear
But I just want to disappear
When I find you turning the tables on me, on me.
You think you're so amusing.
Look what you're doing to me
Its all to cruel to be amusing
I know you think you're sorry dear
But when it's time to reappear
I just keep on disappearing on you, on you
Youre sorry now it's over
Look what you're doing to me
Its all too cruel to be amusing
Do you think it's funny now
I built my world around you
Stupid but true
Whos sorry now it's over
Look what you're doing to me
Its all to cruel to be amusing
Do you think Im laughing now
