You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

You follow her down
Whenever she's around
And you cling to the safety
Of her shelter
This house is not a home
But your need for her has grown
It's a leash but you like it
Come to need it

You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

She kicks you when you're down
But still you hang around
There's a strange kind of longing
Ties you to her
For her sake you're on your knees
You'll do anything to please
It's no life but you'll live it
Come to love it

You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

You know it
And you like it that way
You know it

You know it
And you like it that way
You know it

Never good enough
Never quite enough
Never asks for much
Does she

Never good enough
Never quite enough
Never asks for much
Does she
Does she Does she Does she

You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

You know it
You know it
And you like it that way
You know it
You know it

You know it
And you like it that way
You know it

You know it

And you like it that way
You know it
And you like that way

You know you like it that way
You know it
And you like it that way

You know you like it that way
You know it
