"Ups And Downs"

Visit "Ups And Downs" on MotoLyrics.com

Every mistake I make's my own
And I've got shelves of them at home
Designer-lit in perfect frames
A slightly prideful show of shame
Someday I'll see...that's not me
I will find comfort of my own design
I will find comfort of my own design

The thing about our ups and downs
Is we always hit the ground
So take a smirking photograph
Close your eyes, enjoy the crash
Someday I'll see...that's not me
I will find comfort of my own design
I will find comfort of my own design
