Theme Song Of Nbc's "Passions"

Breathe

I would hold the hand of the one who could lead me places

And kiss the lips of the one who could sing so sweet
And I fly on a wings of a bird i knew would take me highest

Breathe in, breathe out

You keep me alive

You are the fire burning inside

Breathe in breathe out

You keep me alive

You are my fire, my passions for life

I would dance with the feet I knew could always follow

And take the road that had the straightest line

And you do all of these things for me

You are all, and then some

Breathe in, breathe out

You keep me alive

You are the fire burning inside

Breathe in breathe out

You keep me alive

You are the fire burning inside of me

You are my passion for life
