I can see it in your face
Don't think that I don't recognise it
I was adored once too
Soon you'll be bitter and old my dear
We'll see about these feelings you have
They'll be the death of you

Needy, wanting, guilty, laden...
There ain't enough to go 'round in this world
It's alright...

Take a good look around my dear
You'll see what everyone can see
You've been a fool for love
Wipe off those snivelling tears
And wean yourself from this dependency
It's just not pretty

Needy, wanting, guilty, laden...
There ain't enough to go 'round in this world
It's alright...
