Love has a bitter face
It knocks on your door selling real estate
And love has a lot to say
Up on a soapbox and it's here to stay
Love has no sense at all
Always assumes it can get to the ball
Love has a bitter face
My love has a bitter taste

It's just giving what it's got
Everything comes around
It's inside you like it or not
Everything comes around

Love is a lot to take
Smiles like a card shark and it's on the make
And love's looking like a fool
At the edge of the building and it's lost it's cool
Love is a lot to take
My love is a lot to take

What goes around comes around baby
Sometimes sometimes
Sometimes sometimes
