Visit "Too Cruel" on MotoLyrics.com

I could not be in a world without you
I would not live in a world that did not Contain you
I never speak of it
I seldom think on it
But I would not live in a world without you
And now the rain comes down
Just like it always does
I never see the rain unless I am with you
Ive no desire for a world without you
I have no place in a world you do not Remain in
I seldom think on it
But Ive no desire for a world without you
Don't you know what it is to be
Happy with someone, are you happy with someone
