Young man in Morocco buys a diamond ring takes it across the water just to see what luck it brings young girl dressed in midnight sets his blood on fire you can't buy my soul with gold, but my heart is up for hire

I can't shake it, I can't shake it
I can't shake it, just can't shake
I can't shake it, I can't shake it
I can't shake it, just can't shake

Driving in your fleetwood to the sport of kings today top hat, cane and ascot, that's the game you play jumpin' from a window, shirt half off your back better take the elevator -- yeah -- and find another track

I can't shake it, I can't shake it
I can't shake it, just can't shake
I can't shake it, I can't shake it
I can't shake it, just can't shake
