J. Brewster-Throckman)

Don't care if you don't love me, don't mind standing behind,

I just wanna be there, help you pass the time,

no need for building relations, my love is yours on demand,

you know where to find me, when you need a man,

And when you say that you're feeling the pain,

I'll be your shelter from tha rain.

and when you say that you cannot stand the strain,

I'll be your shelter from tha rain.

Real love is on the horizon, love games are all that we play,

take me as your lover when you're feeling that way,

walk in and light up the darkness then leave in the
ghost of the night,

I know what to give, make you feel alright,

And when you say that you're feeling the pain,

I'll be your shelter from tha rain.

and when you say that you cannot stand the strain,

I'll be your shelter from tha rain.

(solo)

I know you are above me, this man lives in his dreams

how I wanna love ya, and know what it means

walk in and light up the darkness then leave in the
ghost of the night,

I know what to give, make you feel alright,

And when you say that you're feeling the pain,

I'll be your shelter from tha rain.

and when you say that you cannot stand the strain,

I'll be your shelter from tha rain.
