(J. Taglieri)

I can't close my eyes tonight
All I see is you and candle light
Just like the first night that we met
I wonder where you are now
I can't seem to figure out
How to make myself get over you
I promised you I'd be there for you
Please tell me what to do
When there's no more me and you
Please tell me what to say
How do I face another day
Here without you
Please tell me how to cope
And live without giving up hope
Please tell me what to do
"Cause I can't live my whole life through
Here without you
A vision goes through my mind
Of us in a better time
Smiles and laughter were the only things we knew, oh it's true
Then one day I came home
To a note sitting by the phone
Telling me that you'd found someone new
You promised me you'd always be so true
Please tell me what to do
When there's no more me and you
Please tell me what to say
How do I face another day
Here without you
Please tell me how to cope
And live without giving up hope
Please tell me what to do
"Cause I can't live my whole life through
Here without you
So many times I would tell myself
That I would find a way out of this hell
I pray to all the things I ever believed
That I'll wake one day and you'll be next to me
Please tell me what to do
When there's no more me and you

Please tell me what to say
How do I face another day
Here without you
Please tell me how to cope
And live without giving up hope
Please tell me what to do
"Cause I can't live my whole life through
Here without you
