Come on, now
Are you ready?
Come on, now
Your life has been too easy

I stole the keys from your dad
Don't be angry at me
He won't even get mad
We'll be back in time, don't you worry

I know
The best is yet to come
I feel it in my bones
This feeling won't last for long
Won't last for long

Come on, now
Are you ready?
Come on, now
Don't you be so easy

I wanna be somebody else
Just for the night
We'll stay together
Until they turn out the city lights

I know
The best is yet to come
I feel it in my bones
This feeling won't last for long
Won't last for long

I know
The best is yet to come
I feel it in my bones
This feeling won't last for long
Won't last for long
