Can't get much done these days
Gotta find a different way
I'd like to start all over again
Things keep on happening
I only stand and watch them
I need to get back on the train

How was I supposed to know
That you'd be here today
But gone tomorrow?
I always try to anticipate
But it moves so fast
That I can't calculate

Can't get much done these days
Gotta find a different way
I'd like to start all over again
Things keep on happening
I never see them coming
I need to get back on the train

Where am I supposed to go
I've looked everywhere
I've just been watching the show
I know I need to concentrate
The way I feel
I don't articulate

Can't get much done these days
Can't get much done these days
Things keep on happening
I never see them coming
I need to get back on the train

It's plain to see
You're almost there but something is missing
My time, day time
Can't you see that you're trying too hard?
You hear voices
Time to get back where you belong

Can't get much done these days
I'd like to get back on the train
I'd like to start all over again
