As I was thinking about the things that you said
I looked up to the sky to see a cloud passing by
There must be something wrong
There must be something wrong

As I was thinking about the things that you said
I looked up to the sky to see a cloud passing by
There must be something wrong
There must be something wrong

Better days will come
Better days will come
(No, you can't always win, I guess you'd rather just wait)
Better days will come

As I was thinking about the things that you said
I looked up to the sky to see the cloud passing by
There must be something wrong
There must be something wrong

Better days will come
(No, you can't always win, I guess you'd rather just wait)
Better days will come
(No, you can't always win, I guess you'd rather just wait)

Better days will come
(No, you can't always win, I guess you'd rather just wait)
Better days will come

There must be something
There must be something wrong

Better days will come
Better days will now come

Better days will come
(No, you can't always win, I guess you'd rather just wait)

Better days will come
(No, you can't always win, I guess you'd rather just wait)
Better days will come
(Just wait)
