"Too Close To The Sun"

One day I got too close to the sun
She burnt my wings and I fell to the ground
Too late to make up for a head-dress
The wind blew away, my feathers and the rest

I don't blame anyone
I only wanted to have fun
I found out on my own
I was weaker than I thought

Walking along the bottom of a swimming pool
Till I was out, out of my depth
I'm sorry, but I never even knew your name
Thanks for pulling me out.

Sweet thing get me high again please
Sweet love get me high again please
Oh Baby you know I can't resist a tease
Sweet love get me high again please,

(don't blame it on the sun)

One day I got too close to the sun
She burnt my wings and I fell to the ground
