(Japan Bonus Track)

Another sock in the belly day
Why don't you go away
Inside your storm, it kinda keeps me warm
At night... well I.. know it to be true
Swirling through, inside you
Your light is my light
Your light

After you left I couldn't sleep
I have nowhere to be now
And if you go then I go too
And if you leave then I will find you
I was kicked in the belly today
And it wasn't fair play
I would scream but
I've too much to say
Life isn't fair play

I wish you away
Just go away
I wish you away
Don't go away
You were never here anyway...
