Went out one night
Came back drunk
Had a girlfriend
Wasnt thinking
And did another girl

Woke up that morning
Saw her face
The face of hate, anger
She saw us both lying there
She yelled and then the door slammed

Sorry for what Ive down
Sorry for what I said
Sorry for everything
Im just sorry

Wished she call back
Wish she come back
To me and hold me
I didnt mean to do what I did
I want to forgive her

Called her
No answer
Went out that night
Didnt drink
Came home and saw her at my door

Sorry for what Ive down
Sorry for what I said
Sorry for everything
Im just sorry
