if i had got out the game

i use to live my life playing with these girls living like a superstar traveling around the world i could have any girl that i liked didn't matter what night man it was serious the game was tight (whoa) then i met this girl that broke down my guard went straight to my heart and it hit me real hard (yeah) got me changing up my lifestyle wanna be with her right now and i'm booking my flight now cos wherever you are i wanna be (oh oh) and your smile is all i wanna see (yeah yeah)

and the one thing now i know is missing

don't know how i could of met you find a love that's so true
this may sound a little crazy but i would not be happy
don't know how i could of met you
tell me where would i be now

v.i.p at the club every weekend checking for some new chicks that i can get in don't know why i'm even here when you're on my mind and i feel like i'm in love for the first time cos wherever you are i wanna be (i wanna be) and your smile is all i wanna see (i wanna see)

don't know how i could of met you
but i would not be happy (if we couldn't be)
don't know how i could of met you

i'm done with that
no turning back
love's where it's at (love is where it's at babe)
you made a change
i'm not the same
i love you babe (cos you know i love you baby)

love's where it's at (love's where it's at yeah)
(and i'm not the same)
all i can say

don't know how i could of met you
don't know how i could of met you find a love that's so true (so true)

if i had got out the game (whoa) oh never would've met you
now i see that i never would've found a love so true
can you tell me would i be happy, so happy
