Betty told Dupree she wanna diamond ring
Betty told Dupree she wanna diamond ring Dupree told Betty, "Baby, I'll buy you anything"

Dupree told Betty, "Baby, won't you be my wife" Dupree told Betty, "Baby, won't you be my
wife"
She said, "I know, I'm yours, I'm yours for the rest of my life"

Put your arms around me, baby, honey, like a circle
'round the sun
Put your arms around me, baby, like a circle 'round the sun
Put your big strong arms around my waist, let it slide down on the one

Love me, baby, love me all to the bone Won't you love me, baby, honey, love me deep down in my bones
I will love you so good that you can't stand to leave me alone

Kiss me, baby, ooh, right on my ruby lips Won't you kiss me, baby, honey, on my ruby lips Put your big strong arms around my waist and let it slide down on my hips

Yeah, yeah, Betty told Dupree, she wanna diamond ring
Betty told Dupree, she wanna diamond ring
Oh, and Dupree said, "Betty, oh, I'm gonna buy you anything"
